

Modern Languages for Life and Work Award French (Course Code: GR4W 45)

SCQF Level 5 (15 Credit Points)

Why study French?

Learning a new language allows you to connect with different people and enhance your understanding and enjoyment of other cultures.

Being able to speak another language gives you a competitive edge when applying for jobs or further study. Language skills open up a whole world of travel, work and study opportunities.

France is currently the world's fifth largest economy and an important trading partner of the UK. French is the second most popular learned language in the world after English, and is spoken in around 30 countries including Belgium, Switzerland, Canada and many countries in central and north Africa. It is also one of the official languages of the European Union and the United Nations.

What will I study?

The Modern Languages for Life and Work Award is made up of 3 units

As part of the Languages for Life unit, you will learn how to exchange personal details such as, family and friends, hobbies and interests, where you live, food and drink and school.

As part of the Languages for Work unit, you will learn how to write a CV in French discuss your skills and qualities and your future plans.

In the Introduction to Leadership unit, you will research what makes an effective leader and evaluate your potential for leadership by identifying your own skills, qualities and experiences

How will I be assessed?

There are no exams for this award. You will demonstrate your learning through a variety of contexts. You will be assessed by your teacher.