My Future

For my future I would like to become either a policy adviser or a history/ Modern studies teacher as I am currently studying both social policy and History at University along with a module in education.

Skills I have developed

During my time at Graeme High I have developed a lot of confidence that has allowed myself to progress in all areas of life and has allowed myself to be where I am today. Along with confidence the school helped me to develop life skills which includes stress management, decision making, Time management and many more which has become extremely helpful whilst contributing to online learning and

Choosing my destination

In school I had the support of many teachers as well as friends. It is not always necessarily a teacher you have on a daily basis it could just be someone who you feel comfortable talking with. For myself this was my DHH (Miss Ringrose), All the Humanities teachers, Mrs McCormick, Senior Baxter & Mrs Hamilton along with teachers who had also left the school but had continued to support me until my

My advice

My advice is that if first you do not succeed try and try again. Grades do not define you as a person so do not let them ever bring you down. By continuing to work hard you may find that it all works out in the end. Always be Kind, supportive and spread joy to others which is the key to success and happiness throughout life.
